

Extended Season Crop List for Coastal Washington/Oregon

From "Backyard Bounty, The Complete Guide to Year-Round Organic Gardening in the PNW",
By Linda Gilkeson

Many crops can be planted multiple times throughout the growing season in order to stagger harvests. Check seed packets for suggested planting times.

Crops to Plant in February

- Broad Beans (aka Fava Beans)

Crops to Plant in March

- Peas
- Onion Sets
- Potato Sets
- Strawberries
- Fruit Bushes and Trees

Crops to Plant in April – Early May

- Peas
- Lettuce and other Salad Greens
- Spinach
- Kale
- Swiss Chard
- Chinese Cabbage and other Leafy Greens
- Carrots
- Beets
- Parsnips
- Turnips
- Kohlrabi
- Potatoes
- Radishes
- Scallions
- Parsley
- Broccoli (seeds or transplants)
- Cabbage (seeds or transplants)
- Cauliflower (seeds or transplants)
- Leek and Onion Seedlings

Crops to plant Mid to Late May

- Brussel Sprouts
- Cabbage (for fall harvest)
- Tomatoes (transplants)
- Zucchini (transplants)
- Eggplant (transplants if soil is warm)
- Cucumbers (transplants if soil is warm)
- Pumpkin and other squash (transplants if soil is warm)
- Beans (seed or transplants if soil is warm)
- Sweet corn (short season seedlings)

Crops to Plant in Early June

- Summer Cauliflower
- Beans
- Melons (transplants)
- Zucchini and other summer squash (seeds and transplants)
- Sweet corn (short season varieties)

Crops to Plant Mid to Late June

- Winter Cauliflower
- Purple Broccoli
- Winter Cabbage (quick maturing)
- Parsnips

Crops to Plant in Early July

- Carrots
- Beets
- Rutabagas
- Endive/Radicchio
- Swiss Chard
- Kohlrabi

Crops to Plant by Late July through Mid-August

- Arugula
- Fall/Winter Lettuce
- Kale
- Daikon and Winter Radish
- Leaf Mustards
- Mustard Spinach
- Spinach
- Chinese Cabbage/other hardy greens
- Sweet Onions and Scallions
- Mizuna
- Collards
- Broccoli Raab

Crops to Plant Late August through mid-September

- Corn Salad (mache)
- Cilantro
- Arugula
- Winter Lettuce

Crops to Plant in October

- Garlic
- Broad Beans/Fava